BZP Forums _ LEGO General Discussion _ Dino Attack Rpg

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 1 2005, 09:46 AM

In the year 2010, the LEGO Planet finds itself in peril. Massive, dangerous mutated forms of dinosaurs have suddenly appeared in mass numbers all over the planet, and are fighting to regain control of the world. Pirates, Knights, Astronauts, and all the other citizens of LEGO Planet are looking up to one team to stop this Mutant Dino invasion: The Dino Attack Team.

RULES:

Rules are important to the survival of this RPG. Breaking them will result in penalties depending on which rule and how severely it was broken.

1. All BZP rules are in effect here. This means no spamming, no flaming, etc.
2. Use "IC" when In Character (describing what your character is doing in-universe) and "OOC" when Out Of Character (to talk and discuss with other BZP members). This way, it is less confusing for other members to read your posts. For example:
"OOC: I got my Steel Sprinter VS Mutant Lizard yesterday!
IC: Jerry spun around in his Fire Hammer. He dodged the T-Rex, and began to plan a solution to defeat the monstrous animal."
3. Keep violent descriptions down to minimal. Instead of typing IC: BAMBAMBAMBAM! He shot his machine gun at the T-Rex just for fun, and laughed as he saw its guts spill out onto the street!IC: He fired his weapon at the T-Rex, who fell to the ground dead.
4. Do not kill other players' characters without their consent.
5. If you are planning to leave this RPG, please let me know in advance so I may take your profile down from the first post. If you're only going on break, tell me so that I do not take down your profile.
6. Rookie agents are limited to Starter Vehicles. Unless my consent is given, they may not use an Elite Vehicle.

GUIDELINES

Guidelines are like the rules. However, breaking of the guidelines only results in a warning.

1. Instead of adding more PMs to my inbox, if you've got something you want to tell me about this RPG, do so in your post. That's why the OOC part of the post exists.
2. Do not kill official LEGO Characters. It's alright if you kill your own made-up characters, but if Johnny Thunder or Captain Redbeard dies, I'm going to ask you to change your post.
3. Please know that at times I can be extremely busy and cannot always attend this RPG. This means that I may not add your Agent's profile to the Database as soon as you post it. If I have not added your Agent's profile, do not, repeat, DO NOT hassle me or PM me to get it added. Patience is a virtue, you know, and although I admit that I lack patience, I hope you have some. Be considerate.
4. Do not PM your profile to me. Post it here instead.
5. If possible, make your posts medium-length. Epics are not required for each post, but posts with one or two in-character sentences don't add much to the RPG. This RPG tries to see how well you and other members can interact and take control of the story; while this can be achieved through short posts, it take far less time with medium-length posts.
6. Keep interaction with other LEGO themes down to minimal. It's alright if your character has a conversation with Johnny Thunder and Dr. Kilroy, but if scores of Space Police begin to show up, it would get ridiculous.
7. No G-Modding. If your character leaps across a fifty-mile canyon, or defeats two hundred Mutant T-Rexes single-handedly, that's G-Modding. Don't do it. It makes the RPG less challenging.
- 7a. There appears to be a bit of confusion over the term 'G-Modding'. In this context, 'G-Modding' refers to giving your character ridiculous abilities. Apparently, another definition of 'G-Modding' is controlling other people's characters. The former is what's not allowed, but the latter is allowed in this RPG.

CURRENT MISSION: This will be the current mission in the RPG, which will be the RPG's main focus. You are not required to participate in it, but the more members that are involved, the easier it will flow.

Ogel's Goo has been discovered to have unique properties that, when absorbed by a Mutant Dino, causes the Mutant Dino to go into a shut-down coma-like state. Because of how insecure the Goo Caverns are, they must be reinforced. Go to Ogel's Goo Caverns, reinforce the tunnels and caverns, defeat any Mutant Dino you find, and reconstruct Ogel's Underground Base.

AGENT RANKS: There are three different ranks of agents in the Dino Attack team, but only two are playable.

STANDARD AGENT - All new recruits start off as standard agents. They can use most vehicles, but not the Iron Predator or T-1 Typhoon.

ELITE AGENT - After a period of time of playing this RPG, with posts of good content and many things done to help the LEGO Planet, I'll upgrade you to Elite Agent. The main focus of Elite Agents would be the ability to access Elite Vehicles.

TEAM COMMANDER - Obviously, the commander of the Dino Attack Team. The only agent of this rank is Specs.

Name: Rex

Age: 27

Skills: Quick, and is quite good at ropes

Vehicle: Iron Predator

Personality: Rex doesn't believe in killing the Mutant Dinos. Instead, he has a strange habit of capturing them - then trying to tame them. So far, he is only good at taming the Mutant Lizards.

IC:

Rex hopped into the Iron Predator. He was ready for action. So far, he had seen none of the Mutant Dinos, not even the Mutant Lizards, but Rex knew the day was just beginning...

OOC: Welcome, Kotua in Space and Vakrohk! Yes Kotua, according to the Brickmaster Mag, this takes place in 2010. Vakrohk, I'm afraid that "Viper" is already a name of a Dino Attack Agent. Can you change it?

IC: Rex looked at the Agent Database. Two new Agents had joined the Dino Attack team. "Well," Rex said to himself, "better go and meet them!" But suddenly, a Mutant Raptor appeared in front of Rex.

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 1 2005, 02:36 PM

OOC:

Codename: Sereve (saer-uh-vay)

Age: 21

Skills: Loves quick vehicles and is a sharp shooter

Vehicle: Urban Avenger

Personality: Sereve tends to be the slightly annoying one out of missions. In missions, he's lean, mean, dino destroying machine. He's only missed 1 target so far with his Urban Avenger. Though he's a little kooky, he's a great friend and a follower.

IC: As Sereve walked toward his Urban Avenger, helmet in hand, confident not to mess up this mission as he had the last one. Though he killed a dino, he also destroyed have of the base. It wasn't his fault he missed the shot though. A mutant lizard was on top of his Sonic Screamer and knocked it off target, hitting the base. That little pest became road kill several seconds later. Sereve hopped in his UA, helmet on, opened one of the many garages lining the rear of the Dino Attack Team base, and then drove off to the next mission.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 1 2005, 02:49 PM

OOC: Welcome, Toa Kevin!

IC: Rex launched a net, careful not to hurt the Mutant Raptor. With its deadly talons and teeth out of use, Rex loaded the dino into his IP (Iron Predator). "In time, I'll learn how to tame Raptors..." he said to himself. He checked the Database to see that Agent Sereve had joined the club.

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 1 2005, 02:54 PM

IC: While Rex was checking the data base, Agent Sereve drove up at top speed, came to screeching halt, and then asked, "What did I miss?"

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 1 2005, 04:06 PM

IC:kotua put a small computer system on the UA, and began wiring it to the lens he had atached to the weapon on top. kotua had added a few weapons on the side, mostly missiles to distract the Dinos and lizards. After finnishing. kotua hoped into his vehide. kotua heard something, and turned around. a Mutant lizard was running towards him! kotua quickly turned on the vehicle, and drove the UA out of the way of the lizard.

*Finally, a mutant animal appearst*thought kotua.

He activated his weaponry, and began firing at the Lizard.

The Lizard avoided most blasts, and hoped onto the front of the UA.

"Hey! The paint was barely put yesterday!"said kotua.

Immediately he drove the UA in revers, making the lizard fall off.

"I hate to do this..."said kotua, driving the UA forward. the Lizard jumped onto the UA again.

*D'oh!*thought kotua.

OOC: Yo, Peabody! I'm back!

Name: Kai
Age: 20
Skills: Precision
Vehicle: Urban Avenger
Personality: A champion in air rifle, Kai is able to target and shoot at anything, unless it's small and moving... He has the "lone wolf" personality unless something proves too tough for him to take down alone.

IC: Kai did a diagnostic on his vehicle. Screamer, wheels, body... everything was good. He drove out of his garage, towards the site of carnage.

Posted by: Vakrohk Jul 2 2005, 07:01 AM

OOC:Okay Peabody.I made some changes for the post above.

IC:
Venom ran around the broken city of Chigago searching for an Experiment Lab called Mutation Lab.It seemed so far away.When Venom reched it he hacked omputer and got in the lab when he could have stayed in the safety of the outside.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 2 2005, 09:52 AM

IC:kotua began firing at it, forcing the mutant Lizard to jump off the UA.
kotua drove in revers, and then drove towards the mutant Lizard, firing at it. the lizard ran off, but kotua chased it through the street, avoiding parts of the city that were on fire. kotua kept on firing at the lizard, until finnally making it collapse.
"Yeah! I took one down!"said kotua getting off.
He walked towards the mutant lizard
Suddenly he heard a roar. he felt the ground shake.
a mutant T-rex walked towards him..
kotua ran towards his UA, and drove in reverse, and then turned around, and drove towards the d/ino team HQ with the T-rex running close behind..

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 2 2005, 01:22 PM

OOC: Welcome to the club, KanohiTakua! And Vakrohk, thanks for changing your character's name!

IC: Rex found that another Agent - Kai - had joined the team. "The more, the merrier!" he said to himself. Then, a dozen of Mutant Lizards surrounded him. "Err, forget what I just said!" He fired a cannon to distract them, then launched nets to trap them - without hurting them.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 2 2005, 05:18 PM

IC:kotua drove through the streets. a fact sinked in:
He was lost.
*Man, next time I'm putting a shield and a electronic map in this thing...hey! I still got my weaponry!*thought kotua.
kotua pressed a button on the computer, and the missiles turned to face the rear.
*Hopefully this will distract it...*thought kotua.
he pressed a button, and two missiles flew out. they hit the T-rex, and exploded harmlessly. the T-Rex stopped, surprised by the explosions. soon,.
he was after kotua.
kotua drove like crazy all over the city, until...
SMASH!
kotua drove through an abandoned fire station, and crashed into a Lizard nest.
"I need to but an airbag or something on this thing."muttered kotua, getting out of his UA, and realizing where he was.
Had he looked towards the front of the UA earlier, he would have noticed the Mutant Lizards moving towards him.
kotua walked out of the fire station to look for the T-Rex.
After making sure the T-rex was gone, kotua turned to get on his UA.
he screamed, and backed away slowly, for Mutant lizards were walking towards him, and they seemed hungry, very hungry...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 2 2005, 07:13 PM

IC: Rex brought the trapped Dinos to his small hideout. Here he stored the dinos when they were not being trained. And still, he only managed to tame the Mutant Lizards. He also fed the dinos daily. Some of the dinos - especially those which were tamed - he gave nicknames, such as Lizzy, Marlin, Toothy, and Terry. He couldn't explain why he tamed dinos instead of killing them - it was a very strange habit of his.

Posted by: Mobius 1 Jul 2 2005, 08:55 PM

name:Hyrode
vehicle: fire hammer
age:18
skills: vehicle piloting personality: he got his drivers liscense two years ago, and he's alreay tossing around some of the big names of racing. naturally that makes him cocky and overconfident. yet he is fiercely loyal to his friends and would risk his life for you.

ooc: that okay?

ic: Hyrode jumped in his fire hammer and took off towards the building being attacked. He sincerely hoped the blips on his radar weren't t-rexes. this job wasn't exactly going three laps with Mr.Schumacher at nurburgring. it was much worse.

Posted by: KanohiTakua Jul 2 2005, 10:06 PM

IC: Kai heard a loud thump. He heard another. And another. The thumps were getting closer. Kai truned around and saw a mutant T-Rex. He attempted stunning the T-Rex with the screamer. No use. It started cahsing him. "Bad day, bad day, bad day!" he yelled, as he took tight turns to lose the dinosaur. He swivelled his screamer and fired at the T-Rex repeatedly in hopes of deafening it. His efforts were futile. While keeping his eyes on the road, he rummaged through his glove compartment -- and found a grenade. He pulled the pin and hurled it at the dinosaur, but inertia made him miss.

BOOM.

Next thing he knew, he still had the monstrous dinosaur gaining on him, and only a dozen Mutant Lizard carcasses between them. Nearby was another person in a UA, staring open-mouthed at what just happened.

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 3 2005, 08:00 AM

IC: As Sereve watched Rex leave, he decided to go back to his hom town, CHicago, to refelct on what's happened to him over the years. And maybe kick some Dino butt. Several days later, he reached chicago which was smokey foggy waste land. The Sears tower was gone. The top of the building was on the ground. He looked around with tears in his eyes. Then he remebered his old home. He sped of to the suburbs into his cul de sac where he used to live. He reached his house which was in complete ruins. His whole family was dead from the lizards' rampage. He got out of his UA, and knelt before the ruins of the place he was raised for most of his life. He started sobbing, until he heard a faint Ruff! He woke up and said "gasp* Bailey?" As the barking continued, he ran to where it was coming from, until it was loudest under a pile if charred wood. He dug through the woods like a bulldozer until he found a cute little dusty dog shivering in fear. He was black and white. And when he saw me, he jumped on me and started moaning with sadness. I said to him, "I know, Bailey, I know. Common. Let's go home." I then strapped him in another seat, drove him to the Dino Attack base, went through the doors and said, "Bailey welcome to your new house!" Bailey then started running around ready to explore. But there was one problem, what will the guys think of him? "Oh well! We'll just have to wait and find out!" And so they waited for everyone to get back. OOC: I'm talking about my real dog here.

Next thing he knew, he still had the monstrous dinosaur gaining on him, and only a dozen Mutant Lizard carcasses between them. Nearby was another person in a UA, staring open-mouthed at what just happened.

OOC:Was that my character staring open mouthed, or you mean someone else?

IC:kotua watched the other UA leave, and walked towards his own UA, shocked.

kotua decided to drive back to the HQ, and tok off at high speeds.

soon, he arrived at the HQ garage.

He drove the vehicle in, and began adding a map system, and other things.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 3 2005, 02:27 PM

IC: Rex had found out that Hyrode had just joined. He wondered how many more Agents would join. Then, he set to work feeding one of his captured Mutant Pterasaurs - Terry, Rex called him. After he finished feeding the others - and making sure that two particually nasty Mutant Raptors would stop fighting - he hopped into the IP and drove off.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 3 2005, 02:39 PM

IC:kotua then started re-painting the UA, as the mutant lizards had scraped part of the paint off. "Annoying little creatures"muttered kotua, as he began painting his UA.

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 3 2005, 10:40 PM

IC: Sereve desided to introduce Bailey to the gang. Sereve picked up the small dog and carried him into the the gargage where Kotua was painting his UA. I walked in the door and said to him "He man! We got a new member of the squad! His name's Bailey. He's my old dog! What do you think of him?"

Posted by: KanohiTakua Jul 4 2005, 12:14 AM

Kai checked around. The T-Rex had disappeared... somehow. He had a rough day and decided to return to base and fix up his roughly damaged car. Not only that, he would not like seeing the T-Rex again.

He stopped in the garage and just got off the UA when he heard Sereve. Ignoring it, he continued on with his repairs, and attached a tranquiliser device to his sonic screamer. Now only to see if that worked on mutant dinos...

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 4 2005, 09:14 AM

IC:"Fascinating."muttered kotua.
"Whats wrong?"asked Severe.
"Mutant lizards scraped off some of the paint. I hope the team doesn't mind me taking the oppurtunity in repainting it in another color."said kotua.
"I meant about Baily."said Severe.
"as long as he doesn't mess with my stuff, hes okay. where did you find him anyways?"said kotua turning to repaint the UA.
"Near my old home"said Severe.
"wow, that dog survived the mutant dinos?"said kotua painting the tan part of the UA black.
"obviously."said Severe.
with that, Severe and Bailey left the garage, and headed into the rest of the HQ.

Can I join?

Name: Isaac Craft
Vehicle: Urban Avenger
Age: 23

Skills: Hand to hand combat, using his blade.

Personality: A strange character, he doesn't use any conventional weapon to take down Dinosaurs. Though he does have a side-arm, he tends to use his sword. A katana, the metal was folded over 200 times. It's one of a kind. Same goes with his vehicle, he rarely uses it. He doesn't trust anyone, only his blade. He doesn't like people intervening in his affairs. You could classify him as a lone-wolf. Fighting the Dinosaurs is the only thing left for him.

IC: Strange...Isaac stood on top of a building. He was overlooking the city, burning and in ruins. The sky shared the orange color. The sunset was nice. Strange contrast.

He didn't have any encounter with the Dinosaurs today. He sat down and looked at the stars as the curtain of the night was covering the Earth.

IC:after kotua finished painting the tan part black, kotua painted the Dark Red parts of his UA teal.

"I hope nobody minds this color 'change'."said kotua.

OOC:May I join as well.

Name: Rev Raptor (or as he puts it "Raptor, Rev Raptor")

Age: 19

Skills: Trained for speed and accuracy(going 120mph he can stop on a dime)

Vehicle: Fire Hammer

Personality: Second youngest member of the team. Very serious at the base but when he's hes in his vechile he won't stop until the missions done because he's having to much fun. Hes also a prodigy and finished Universty with a Doctor's in Science 4 years earlier and is studying a Mutant Lizard.

IC:

Rev looked into the picth sky from just outside the HQ with his headlights on just enough to see infront of him without having Dinosaurs attracted to the light. He didn't trust the air that night.

He began muttering to himself "I guess the finger could be pointed at radioactive power plants but even if they hadn't dumped the sludge there those Ion Rays probably would have revived them anyway's" he shut up for a moment and listened to wind, not even the scent of blood in the distance. "We've got all this technology so that we can beat are enemy's and were being destroyed, and if thats the case what good is technology?"

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 4 2005, 11:36 AM

OOC: Yes! This RPG is now a hot topic! Although not one of the Top 10...

IC: Rex walked out of the IP - and stumbled into a nest of baby Mutant T-Rex! "They don't look hungry," Rex sighed in relief. "Perhaps I'll finally learn how to frame one of these - "

ROOOAAARRRR!!!! Rex looked up - to see a Mutant T-Rex - the mother - looking evilly down at him. Rex - seperated from both his IP and nets - transmitted a message.

HELP! I AM SURROUNDED BY SEVERAL YOUNG AND ONE FULL GROWN MUTANT T-REX! S.O.S!
- AGENT REX

Then, Rex prayed that someone got his message...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 4 2005, 11:57 AM

IC:

The Fire Hammers GPS blared into action as Rev recieved the S.O.S.

As Rev drove toward the nest he thought 'This is a suicide mission unless I do this right' Rev then dimmed his lights again "If I come up behind the mother and shoot her knee he maybe able to escape, I just hope this works.'

Rev then picked up his radio and directed the message to Rex "Rex listen, I'm gonna come up and shoot the in the back of each knee that way she'll fall you just need to back up quick when I fire and then we can escape the nest.

P.S. I've locked your current position into my computer so the whole team can come down here tommorow and destroy it. OVER"

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 4 2005, 12:05 PM

OOC:PeaSam, is it okay if I change the colors of my UA?

IC:koua finished painting his UA, and was about to see what else he could add, when he recieved a message, he read it, and headed towards his UA. kotua quickly turned it on, and headed towards Rex's position...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 4 2005, 12:36 PM

IC:

Rev hears Kotau UA and sends his own message to him "this is a rescue mission, not a fight, So get behind Rex and shoot a few babies in non-lethal position's so he can escape, and tomorrow we get the rest of the team and defeat them. OVER."

Rev realized he was closing in and slowed down and shut down any unnecessary systems to quiet his engine for the sneak attack.

Kotua got behind Rex and they both fired so he could escape. The great T-Rex fell to the ground at just the right time the plan was a succeseess.

Rev, Rex, and Kotua all left the area and prepared for tomorrow morning when everyone would come down on there and wipe them out.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 4 2005, 12:43 PM

IC:as soon as they arrived at HQ, kotua started working on adding even more stuff to the UA. one of the things were two lights at the front. kotua added a windshield to the UA. He put more stuff in the computer the UA had...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 4 2005, 01:51 PM

IC:

Rev found himself patrolling outside again and after sitting there doing nothing he caught a scent, the scent of Mutant Lizards at least five. He scent his GPS to show him everything in that directions. 10 Mutant Lizards over a steel Sprinter that he knew wasn't Venom's. beginning to fall off a cliff.

Rev saw the 10 mutant creatures long before they saw him. 4 of the freaks were holding on to the Steel Sprinter. He fired one missile not a Lizard but at the gas tank of the over turned vechile. It hit and caused it to explode and fly off the cliff. He heard mangled hisses from the cliff and knew that the creatures couldn't survive. He also noticed that one had been mostly vaporized by the explosion. He shot to missiles at 2 tree's and took at 1 more by the trunks weight. Then Rev sped up to 90 mph(the lizards run at that speed) and drove towards the cliff with 4 following beside him and 1 behind him. He stopped with his nose overhanging the cliff as the dawn began to break and 2 went flying into the ocean as 2 Elasmosaurus's snatched them up from the tide and down into the black waters the necks appeared from. Now it was 1 on 1 and Rev turned around so that he wouldn't fall to the same fate as the other 8 Lizards. His tires glided along the muddy ground and began to charge at the creature. The Mutant Lizard Jumped moments before they would have collided. Rev instantly pulled a Donut and the airborne critter hit the launcher and was slingshotted in to the forest with a broken neck.

OOC: I'm making a Dino Attack Epic any one who doesn't want to have there character involved please post saying such.

P.S. I'll make my post shorter from now on.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 4 2005, 03:44 PM

OOC: Yes, Kotua, you can paint your vehicles, feel free to do so! You can even have a Robo-Blade if you want!

IC: Rex still didn't like the idea of destroying the baby Mutant T-Rex nest. Then, he set out in his IP to capture - and rescue - the T-Rex family before they could be destroyed. If he was lucky, he could also save the mother Mutant T-Rex. What other Agents didn't realize was that Rex's secret ambition was to tame a Mutant T-Rex. Even if it meant risking the world's very life...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 4 2005, 03:58 PM

IC: Rev looked at the slaughter he'd done and had set up a memorial for them. It was the first time he had killed anything even though he thought it'd be fun being a hero it wasn't. Thats when he decided to go to HQ and even though it was his own idea in the first place try and stop them from killing them, since Rex was attacked because he went into their territory and if the mother attacked you could kill her but he decided instead to use his nets to capture the babies and hopefully the mother too.

Posted by: AoiJuuni Jul 4 2005, 03:59 PM

OOC: Hope I can join in, this sounds like fun.

Name:"Mathias"
Age:Early to mid 20's.
Skills:Mechanical design and repair
Vehicle: Steel Sprinter
Personality: Quiet, Listens more than he speaks...but a bit headstrong, still.

IC: "Is this thing recording?" he glanced into the lens of his video camera, "I hope so..cause this is gonna be this reporter's biggest accomplishment" he grinned as he put his finger against a headphone, listening to what seems to be static and a vague voice. He began to slide down a pile of rubble, and paused glancing around the area, till he spotted a shop window. "....Mathias. My name is Mathias." His name, however wouldn't matter to the mutant lizard he was standing on. The lizard bust through the rubble, making Mathias a passenger. He tried grabbing onto the beast's neck to avoid being thrown, but it was too late. Rolling his body to protect the camera he skidded to a halt. He smiled briefly, enjoying what could best be described as insanity. Sanity quickly set in as he leaped into a full run, heading to a small wall he could climb onto. He climbed over, with his camera filming the Lizard's snarling attempts to get him. Glancing back he groaned, "Out of the pan...and into the fire." A pack of Mutant Lizards was watching. He quickly put a dark lens over his camera, and darkened his glasses, pulling out what could be described as a flare gun he launched a blinding light into the middle of the pack, hoping to blind the creatures in the back and distract the ones in the front to deal with their panicked breathen. He ran slightly, then decided to film the creatures fighting against one another. He glanced around the area, now hoping this wouldn't be the last thing he does.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 4 2005, 04:07 PM

OOC: Of course you can join, AoiJunni! The Castle Gear, I'm confused by your post. Could you explain?

IC: Rex, in the IP, looked at the nest. The mother T was gone, but the babies were still there. Rex smiled. He launched a net, trapping them. When they began squirming, he began to start feeding them a small piece of food, which quieted them for a moment. Then, he loaded them onto his IP. He then drove off for his hideout.

IC:after finishing, kotua headed out, and drove around, in hopes of catching more dinos. after a while of nothing, kotua decided to go back, when a Mutant raptor landed.

"oh boy"muttered kotua, going in reverse. the Raptor held tightly to the UA.

"Why must they land on the front of my UA!"said kotua, opening fire at the raptor. the raptor flew off as the blasts hit it, and it landed on the ground unconscious. unfortunately, more Raptors surrounded kotua...

OOC: It means my character was ridden with grief so much that he didn't want to kill the dinosaurs.

IC: As Rev rode to the nest he noticed 2 things tank treads towards the nest and the momma Rex's footprints leading towards the HQ. Rev turned so quickly his 2 right wheels came off the ground for a few seconds as he shuttled towards the base.

From a distance he saw it, the mother picked up a trainee known as Condr and ripped him to shreds. He knew he'd have to kill it and this time it wasn't a sneak attack. He grabbed a chain gun customized for tranquilizer darts and when he got close enough to get the T-Rex's attention his guilt was ripped to pieces but this thing wasn't gonna die by missiles but lethal injection. The Rex turned around and in a moment 20 darts were lodged into its left eye and it staggered towards the Fire Hammer and collapsed. Rev decided he had been nice, the T-Rex died in its sleep and felt no pain.

He wondered briefly if the dinosuars have learned to drive vehicles, before deciding to go ahead and follow.

Rev found himself at the computer screen studying the Mutant Lizard he caught. Bigger. Stronger. More Destructive. Human Hate. And no known reason for their transformation. Blood Analysis nothing, Reproductive Fluids notta, Flesh Sample clean, Droppings and still nothing, no chemical reactions, no abnormalities and of course the other dinosaurs would be useless to test since we know nothing, and the food preferences still show'd nothing, the only left idea was injecting one regular lizard blood into one person, and a mutant one into another to see the results but that was not optional.

Name: Databoard.
Age: 31.
Skills: Can fix or build just about anything.
Vehicle: Fire Hammer
Personality: Calm, even in the face of danger, but on occasion will lose temper.

IC:

A fire Hammer drove down the streets of a ruined World City. Databoard sat at the controls, remembering this city just a year ago, and it looked much different. For starters, the skyscrapers were less damaged, and there was less fire everywhere. He could see a park, once green and filled with life, now it seemed brown and dead. He had seen much in his life, but this seemed the worst. He had never seen a place with so little life. He soon found some life, four Mutant Raptors waking down the street. He charged up his Xenon Multi-Mode Launcher and aimed it at them. He knew he could hit about two of them before they attacked, and then- well, Databoard hadn't though about it that far...

And there it was.

Kai saw the same pack of four Raptors which Databoard was targeting. He armed his tranquiliser attachment and fired. It hit, and a Raptor slumped to the floor. That moment the other Raptors noticed him and charged.

IC: After that conversation with Kotua, he really got wondering about Bailey. How could he survive such a catastrophe? Could it possibly be that he has the key to unlocking the secret of how to get rid of the Dinos? He entered his room with the small dog. Sereve than said to him, "Now Bailey, I need to do some things that are important. You have to stay here." Once Sereve started leaving, Bailey started crying. Sereve couldn;t help but feel sympathetic for him, so he got a plate and some eggs, and made him some scrambled eggs. He put the eggs on a plate and carried it back to his quarters. He gave the plate to his dog, and then Bailey new he had to go, so he went on his bed, Sreve closed the door and then went on to his next mission. As he closed the door, , his radar/watch, which was compatable to the one in his UA, started lighting up. he pushed a few buttons, and then a radar should have showed up, but the whole screen was taken up by a gigantic blip. Sreve said to him self, "This is bad. Very, very bad." He then got into his UA and drove off to see what this gigantic mostrosity is.

Then, he set to work feeding one of his tamed Mutant Lizards, the one Rex nicknamed Trouble. Then he realized in shock that Trouble was missing! "Well, he's tamed, so I know that he's not going to wreck the city." But, a thought entered Rex's mind - the other Agents didn't know about Trouble or the other tamed Mutant Dinos.

Dust and smoke blew into Rev's face as he cried out "Whoohooohooohoo." He had decided that as long as people are attacked by the Dino's he hated them as he was hunting. "It's good to be out here instead of that lab, out here you can breathe." He muttered. 100 yards ahead of him he saw it a raptor over a Sedan, and all that was in the vehicle was a long bloody piece of denim. He grabbed his chain gun but not to shoot at the raptor. "Yeehaww!!!!" Rev yelled as he started emptying chain of tranquilizers into the air to make some noise. And when the raptor turned a metal missile met with its chest and broke some ribs. The large lizard stood up and started running away, but Rev watched and he was hunting.

He aimed one of the missiles at the raptor's feet to knock it down but an IP got in its way and it ended up with its artillery in the wall. Rev looked at the lizard seeing no blood on it and a tame look in its eyes. He waved to it to get in and it did so. He guessed Rex would want to know about a tame Mutant Lizard who wouldn't kill it, but Rev was going to kill that Raptor but he couldn't let the Lizard see it so when the raptor turned a missile blew up the top of a building and crushed it, and then Rev turned to look for Rex.

"Then why do you keep that dino with you? Don't you like humanity?" Kotua Answered.

"Of course, but its completely tame though don't you think I would have killed it otherwise? I mean whats the point of killing a tame creature other then mindless death?" Rev answered 'come on Rex get here all ready I don't want to open fire again' he thought, knowing that this talk wwaa delaying both sides. Databoard drove away from HQ to look for more Muntant Dinos. He found a group of Mutant Lizards, but they ran away. He managed to stun a fleeing Lizard, which he would take back to HQ and analize. Before he could, he heard a deafening roar. He turned around to see a Mutant T-Rex Charging at him!

Databoard put the Mutant Lizard in his Fire Hammer and drove away, the T-Rex close behind. He couldn't outrun it forever, but fighting it would be suicidal. Rev found himself gawking the sky when a net snag a pteradon out of the sky and he knew Rex was working in the same place as him, but with two very different reasons he got a mayday from not far from here at studio 10, the producers could barely keep them at bay and were stuck with some mutant lizards with shotguns but were running out of shells. He looked in the window through the ravenous creatures trying to kill the people in the and there was at least 50 people in there. He knew what he had to do. He looked at the artillery screen and selected Xenon Multi-Shot Mode. He shot at Dinosaurs and couldn't stop firing. At least 20 raptors died in those red five minutes. He barged into the studio and ended up running over a bunch of lizards. He jumped out to get the people when one lizard jumped on him. They wrestled quite a bit. and soon Rev bagged the lizard, a present for Rex.
Rev found himself scavenging for items to make a trailer for his fire hammer and that he did. Using large carts wheels for wheels he sped out of the studio and found a swarm of Pteradon's after him. There sleek bodies were so evil, and he grabbed a tranq shotgun(ooc: I know he loves tranqs.IC:) He shot quite a few times and took a few down, and netted one because he wanted to study another breed of mutant. Then he finally escaped the studio with safe producers and threads of his life.

IC: rex might have not noticed the van, but Hyrode did. He got in his fire hammer and followed the van closely. He entered the building stealthily, grabbing a tranquilizer dartgun. he heard what the men said, then when the man came out, he stuck him with a dart. then, when the men raised their guns, he came barreling in, firing all he was worth. Then one of the men swiftly approached him from behind, and knocked him out.

On his way out Rev had noticed tread marks, Hyrode's tread marks. He followed them to a building and found an empty van, and Hyrode's Fire Hammer. Rev Grabbed the chain guns and thought 'Yay, humans this time and that means fun, fun ,fun.' He entered with assassin like stealth and through a small window he saw men with guns about to shoot Kotua and Hyrode. He was in full tilt run now. The door broke off its hinges and smashed one of the three into the wall then he tranqed the 2 others but as one of them fell to the ground he shot at Kotua in the arm. Rev ran out to the fire hammer and drove it in, and put both men in it and as he drove to the HQ he sent out a mayday for medics.

IC: Mathias arrived at an area nearby Kotua's Robo blade, looking up with some curiosity. "A Mech, huh?" He then glanced at Rex's vehicle, decided to take out his video camera and record footage of the mech, Rex and his vehicle, "Who knew a ruined town could be so intresting.." he mumbled to himself, glancing around to make sure he wasn't being tailed by any Dinos. He leaned back, placing his hand on a scale-like object, glancing above his shoulder he saw a much larger Dinosaur than he'd seen before, but one smaller than the T-Rex. He cringed, and went into a full run again. "I wish I brought more flares!"

A idea soo crazy, so insane, so mind-numbingly nuts, it would have to work. He turned the Fire Hammer around and charged at the T-Rex. It was suprised at first, but it soon charged as well. At the last second, Databoard swerved out of the way, and the T-Rex rushed past. It tried to turn around, but tripped and crashed into a clump of trees. Databoard drove up to the unconscious giant and attached a tracking device to its leg. He then drove off towards DINO HQ.

Rev saw the Lego City a fire just down the mountian from him and Five Tyrannosaurus-Rex were at the gate. Rev set his launcher to rapid fire mode made his car go top speed and as he went down at a speed he didn't want to think of, he heard in the wind he heard the Cavalry song. He aimed just slightly up and opened fire. "Die you son and daughters of" and Rev's last word was picked up by the wind and never heard again. He was near the foot of the mountain with fire coming from his wheels and four were dead and the other hadn't seen him yet. Rev ran directly into the legs and dented the hood and ruined his paint job. The T-Rex was thrown into the air and chrashed into the flaming treks never to move again. Rev tried to stop or turn or anything but he couldn't he just inch by inch lost speed and to slow him further he shot blindly down the streets and just before he hit a skyscraper(or what was left) he stopped and turned around. 'Maybe now that reward will be mine.' he thought to himself.

IC: Rex was too busy trying to capture a Mutant Raptor that he didn't notice that Mutant Lizards and T-Rexes were sneaking up on him. When Rex turned around, he was astonished. "Oh, great..." he muttered. He then quickly drove out of the area before the Mutant Dinos could react.

IC: Sereve was headed into a trap, because if he looked at his radar watch hard enough, he would have seen that it wasn't one huge blip, it was many smaller ones. He drove his UA toward where the radar was showing him, which was somewhere deep in the heart of NYC. He looked around and saw nothing but ruins. He said to himself, "That's odd. Whatever it is should be right here." He then looked at his radar and saw no blips. He shrugged. The warm air in the city was taking a toll on him, so he made himself a glass of water. He placed it on the dash board, and as soon as he did, there was a large THUMP THUMP THUMP. He looked in his water cup which had ripples going through it with each thump. He said, "This reminds me a movie I used to watch. Gasp! Oh no. It is." He then heard many beeps coming from his radar. They were back. He then checked to see how far the things were from his current location, and found that there were creatures going 50 miles back from his current location! "Oh no," He said. "It's just as I feared. Thousands of mutant T Rexes!" As the foot steps came closer. He sped off in his UA at top speed for the HQ, foot steps getting louder and louder.

Rev looked at the skyscaper. It was perfect condition, well mostly. He looked inside, no elevators but a wheelchair ramp just big enough for the Fire Hammer. Soon he was on the roof. He grabbed a paint can and on the roof and painted a circle with the letters T-1 on it for when he gets his helicopter, this would be his secret base. He looked at the area and new Pteradon's would love this place so next time he came, he'd have a fresh paint job on the fire hammer, Power tools,(<To Fix Inside/Out>) cement, paint and a few Pteradon sensing LA Missile Launchers(Land to Air).

IC: Sereve reached the base, parked his UA, and then ran inside his room. Bailey jumped up on him with joy of him being here, but Sereve was too worried to pay attention to him now. He then said, after shifting around in his closet, "Aha! Found it!" It was a, M36 automatic. He locked the door, grabbed Bailey, raised the gun, and waited for the onslaught of T Rexes. An hour or so has passed in silence. Sereve was starting to fall asleep when more thumps were heard. the kept getting louder and louder until they were right outside one of his walls. They stopped. Then the wall exploded in and to Sereves horror, was aligned with with the dinosaurs! Bailey in arm, he opened fire at the T Rexes. He took down one, but the kept coming. He was then backed up against the door with the horrid creatures breathing down his neck. Sereve was scared half to death, but Bailey wasn't. One of the T rexes growled a loud growl. Bailey returned the the loud noise with an act that no one would have seen coming. He opened his mouth and what came stunned Sereve. Bailey was breathing acid! Several minutes later, half the dinosaurs were melted, and the rest retreated. Sereve, still backed up against the wall, said to Bailey, "Good boy." He picked him up, and had a great thought, maybe Bailey was mutated along with the dinosaurs? Maybe he went into a state of hibernation when his house was being destroyed? No, it couldn't be. Or could it?

Rev looked at his Fire Hammer, he fixed it up and moments ago the paint dried. The gold he he had painted on there was rimmed with red and the rest was black including his new tinted windshield. He also changed his headlights so when the headlights dim in the night they look like Mutant Dino Eyes. He had also painted the trailer to match. 600 pounds of cement were in the trailer, along with tools ,more paint, and 8 LA Turrets.

Next Morning**

Rev was beyond tired next morning since he had fixed almost everything in there, cemented the outside, painted and set those turrets so that they'll only fire at dinosaurs within five of the building. Now he realized what he had forgotten, a bed and some metal shutters. Rev plopped into his vechile and slept (which was hard since the chair was made to keep you up). It was noon when he found himself standing on the roof. He heard a scream above him as a Pteradon launched itself at him then it was drivin back and barely fell out of the explosion range and flapped away.

Rev left back for HQ then and looked like a great ball of light when he did so.

As he started to leave his room, he looked down at his rambunctious dog and though, maybe he'd be a great asset in battle? He picked Bailey up and left. As he was walking down the main hallway, he saw Rev walking down the hallway. Sereve said to him, "Hey Rev! Look, I was just going on a mission and was wondering of you wanted to come with?"

Rev replied with, "No man. I just spent a while fixing up my Fire Hammer and just want to take a breather for now. And why are you bringing your dog?" Sereve looked at the small, furry panting dog and then said, "...Because i feel like it. Ahem."

Rev replied, "Okey..."

Sereve said back, "Look, when I get the team together I'll explain." He then ran off to his UA. Rev looked down the hallway, puzzled, at him and said under his breath, "Weird..."

He recognized the pteradon that dodged the next blast and it found itself obliterated. Screechs filled the air as the pteradons talked. Rev shot one more at the gawking birds and went flying away. He felt the building shake then, A T-Rex at least 200 feet trying to bring it down, and then within that moment a missile flew down towards the Rex and hit in front of it. He glanced at the Mutant Lizard and wondered: could it suport it's weight? If he could ride it HQ, he could come back with fuel for the Fire Hammer. He snapped a leaf-covered branch and walked over to the Fire Hammer. He opened the door and the Mutant Lizard lept out. Clearly hungry, it started to snap it's jaws at the branch. Databoard lept onto the Lizard's back, holding the leaf out of the reach of it's jaws. It began running towards the leaf, but like a horse after a carrot on a string, it would never reach it. Databoard would merely have to move the branch, and the Lizard would follow it. Databoard steered it towards HQ, wondering what everyone would think then he arrived on a Mutant Lizard.

Sereve said to himself, "Man, why hasn't Rex promoted him to Elite Agent yet?" As he finished saying that, he stopped abruptly when he noticed his radar going crazy. It said weird things like, will not excede visoring tumblers. And, cannot push forgetful sanderser. Sereve said to himself, "What the heck..." He then felt the back of his UA getting heavy and falling backwards. He unbuckled, and got ontop of the UA. He saw 5 lizards chewing at the wires that connected to the onboard radar! Sereve said, "Oh no you don't! I had just about enough of this!" He then walked toward the screamer and was about to turn it toward him, when it started moving by itself! Ir was it? He looked down, and saw Bailey on the steering wheel which was controlling the screamer currently. Bailey looked up at the agent, panting. Sereve then said, "Bailey! Go to the left!" Bailey then fell on his eat toward the left, turning the sonic screaming toward the lizards who were still chewing through the wiring. He then swung himself into the cockpit of the UA. and said, "See ya suckers!" He then hit button that ativates the screamer. The lizards were done with quickly. He later said, "Aw man. Now I need my radar fixed. Better find Databoard." Sereve then sped off to find Agent Databoard.

IC:

A boat with the words 'DINO Attack' on the side landed at Adventure Island. Databoard unloaded his Fire Hammer and looked at the island. Destruction was every where, and smoke filled the air. "Whoa..." Databoard muttered. "This isn't what it looked like in the brochures..." He climbed into the Fire Hammer and drove across Adventure Island, or at least what was left of it.

IC:

Databoard drove his Fire Hammer along the barren remains of Adventure Island. He had expected it to be quiet here, but it actually wasn't. He could here the crackling of burning trees, stone crumbling nearby, and the roar of dinosaurs, both normal and mutant. Databoard continued to drive, but the whole place, to put it simply, creeped him out.

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 5 2005, 10:20 PM

IC: Just then Databoard heard a vroooooooooooooom! He looked behind him to see a cloud of dust behind a UA. The UA was several yards behind the Fire Hammer. When Sereve's vehicle came next to Databoards, it stopped, sending dust everywhere. Once it cleared, Sereve called out to him, "Hey Data! Hey, I need you to do me a favor! Do you think you can fix my radar? It was chewed up by lizards. Also, I just talked to Rev. He should be on his way here... I hope." Sereve then held up Bailey and said, "And finally I hope you like dogs. We have new one on the team." Databoard replied, uncertain, "Well I don't know.." Sereve replied with, "There's a catch! He spits acid!" Databoard replied with, "That changes everything." Sereve then said back, "Now about my radar..."

Posted by: Chronicler of Ko-Koro Jul 5 2005, 10:26 PM

IC:

Databoard exaimed the busted radar. "It shouldn't be hard to fix." He muttered. "Just a few wires missing. Now if it was completely bashed in, that would be a different story." He got a few spare wires from a storage compartment ing his Fire Hammer. "This should only take a few minutes." He fixed the radar, and got back into his vehicle. "Now if you'll excuse me..." He said. "I have some dinosaurs to find."

IC: Sereve said to Rev gratefully, "Thanks dude! See you later." Databaord then sped off into the distance. Just then a green blip appeared on his radar which indicated an approaching agent. He heard the vrooming of a Fire Hammer far in the distance. Sereve squinted real hard and then said, "Rev?"

Posted by: Chronicler of Ko-Koro Jul 5 2005, 10:59 PM

IC:

Databoard drove across the island, looking for normal dinosaurs. He soon saw a group of small running. "Perfect." Databoard muttered. Before he could get close, more dinosaurs ran by, larger ones. Databoard was confused by this, but he soon found out why: a Mutant T-Rex was charging at them. Databoard muttered something, but it couldn't be heard over it's roar.

IC:

Rev heard Sereve say "Rev?" Stopping right beside Sereve Rev said "On the button." "What are you doing here?" Sereve asked. "I came here to stop some mutant dino's you know?" Rev replied. "I can't believe we ended up here at the same time though." Sereve said. "Hey, crazy idea that don't happen much, I betcha we could stop a few monsters together but I'm here to catch a regular Lizard DNA comparison ya know?" Rev said. "Not really, no but why not go somewhere else afterwards." Sereve prodded. Rev made the on the nose motion then said "Castle Cove sound good? I've heard mutant dragons are there and I've just gotta catch one." "I'll think about it." Sereve said. For a little while they didn't speak but then Rev couldn't hold it in anymore. "Listen Sereve I found a great base in lego city and rebuilt you can pop in whenever." Rev said. "I'll try not to where my welcome out." Sereve laughed.

Posted by: Chronicler of Ko-Koro Jul 5 2005, 11:20 PM

IC:

Databoard put the Fire Hammer into its highest gear, and shot ahead of the Mutant T-Rex. He sweved behind some trees, but them T-Rex just ran past him. "It's after the Dino's..." He muttered. He fired the Multi-Mode Launcher at the T-Rex. The blast barely hurt the T-Rex, but it distracted it from the dinosaurs. Databoard hid the Fire Hammer behind several trees, and the confused T-Rex walked past him.

OOC: Actually, The Castle Gear, there aren't Mutant Dragons. Just regular Dragons.

I'm going to have to add a new rule: If you have a question to ask me, ask me in your post! No more PMing!

IC: The Mutant Raptors flinched once a non-mutated T-Rex appeared. Chompy! The T-Rex roared at the Raptors, and they fled. "Thanks... Chompy," thanked Rex. Chompy snorted, then ran off. Rex returned to his hideout, and found out something just amazing. Sapphire and Trouble had eggs!

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 6 2005, 07:33 AM

IC: And with that they sped off toward Castle Cove. It was a dark hole that required head lights, which the agents provided. They drove down the mysterious and fairly small cavern slowly. Sereve could feel Bailey trembling and hide underneath Sereves seat. "This place is freaking the heck out of me." Sereve said. "Don't worry. I've been down here before. Maybe if we're lucky we'll get attacked by a mutant dragon!" Said Rev. Sereve replied with an annoyed look, "Great." "Oh look! Here's one now. Ok, Sereve, when I say now, you're going to launch your net at the dragon." Rev said. "But wouldn't it be easier to just take it down?" Sereve asked. "Nope. You couldn't take one of these down with a T-1 Typhoon. Ironically enough, they're more easy to tame than a mutant lizard." Rev replied with a know-it-all tone. "Okay. We'll net it, but I'm not keeping it." Sereve said a little annoyed. "Heh. Fine with me!" Rev said smiling. "Now!" Just then two nets launched out of the fronts of the vehicles at 50 MPH. In the darkness there was a GROOOOOOWL! then a collapse "Woohoo! We got him!" Said Rev happily. "So, you want to come to get him, Sereve?" "No thanks. I'll stay here with my dog. Who won't breathe fire on me." "Oh, come on. Have you even seen these things before?" "No. That's why I want to stay here." "Fine suit yourself." "Oh man I forgot! I need to get all of the agents in the conference room! I'll meet you there." "Wait. Why is it so important that you need ALL of the agents here?" "Look I'll explain later. Just meet me there at 7:00." And with that Sereve drove off to the base. It was empty. A little creepy, even. He went into the conference room, Bailey in arm, sat on the head chair, and then sent out a message to every agent. It said, "Must meet in HQ conference room immediatly. When you're here, say your code name and here. I.E. Sereve here. Meet here at 7:00." Sereve then waited for the agents to come.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 6 2005, 07:37 AM

OOC: Actually, the Dragons aren't mutant. They're the regular green/red or black/red Castle Dragons.

IC: Rex couldn't believe it. Sapphire was a female, and just laid eggs! "Wow!" Rex said excitedly. "Two tame Mutant Lizards just had eggs! I can't believe it! This is amazing! It must have something to do with you, Trouble!" Trouble grinned.

Posted by: Chronicler of Ko-Koro Jul 6 2005, 07:56 AM

IC:
Databoard drove along what remained of a dirt road. Ever since the Mutant T-Rex had shown up, most of the dinosaurs had been hiding. He finally found a small dinosaur running away and caught it. He stunned it long enough to get a DNA sample, and then it ran away. Databoard loaded his Fire Hammer into the boat and left, hoping never to return to Adventure Island again.

IC:
Databoard was driving his Fire Hammer towards Dino HQ. He saw Kotua in a Robo Blade, knocking out the guards. "That's not good..." Said Databoard. He drove into the garage, grabbed a nearby laser rifle, and rushed to stop Kotua, Thinking he was here to say everybody was a Drone...

IC:
Databoard fired the two missiles with the laser rifle, and one exploded. He jumped out of the way of the other missile, and it blew up the wall behind him. "Die Drone!" Kotua yelled. He fired another missile. "Oh good, I was staring to miss people calling me a Drone." Databoard muttered as he lept over the missile.

Posted by: Chronicler of Ko-Koro Jul 6 2005, 09:06 AM

IC:
Databoard aimed the laser rifle at the black-colored vehicle. He fired a few shots at the helicopter, but it did very little damage. It fired at Databoard, who jumped out of the way. Seconds later, the spot where he had been just been standing seconds ago was a smoking crater.

Data used the opportunity to fire at the copter...

IC:
Databoard fired lasers at the copter like crazy. He didn't hit the pilot, but that didn't stop him from trying. The coptor shot at him again, but he lept out of the way. Databoard returned to shooting at the black helicopter, trying to hit whoever was piloting the vehicle.

IC:kotua flew away from the copter, and grabbed a UA. He swung it around, and threw it at the helicopter. the copter quickly blew it out of the sky. kotua found another dino attack vehicle, and swung it in the direction of the copter. Data also fired, but at the right Missile pod. soon it got so hot it started burning, causing the missiles to explode.

Posted by: Chronicler of Ko-Koro Jul 6 2005, 09:40 AM

IC:
"Nice fireworks display." Databoard muttered as the missiles exploded. The Helicopter was still largely intact, though. It shot at Databoard with the left missile pod, but Databoard dodged it again. He returned fire, but again missed the cockpit. He jumped as another missile shot at him, then fired back with his laser rifle.

Rev drove around not planning to go to the HQ or his base. He was heading to the sea's black mark, Lego Island even though it was thought a suicide mission because of the Mutants colors. Rev had lights mounted all over his car, he had a plan. Rev Drove into the middle of island and for a second did nothing. Rev flipped the switch on the dashboard and became a ball of light. Raptors, 50 minimum. The one infront was the first one to be dive bombed and since that just knocked him down he was caught. '3 mutants 1 to go' Rev thought. Then the Xenon Multi-Mode Launcher was set to Auto-Rapid Fire. Rev grabbed something he knew would slow anything down a double-barreled shotgun(OOC: Not Tranq). He aimed roughly for ones head and pulled the trigger. The raptor stopped then began charging again, boom and with that it fell over knocking a few down and trampled. He was out of shell's since he only brought 4 so he turned back to his chainguns which he had named Lethal and Injector. He started pumping tranqs into them but without avail. Soon he was out of Ammo. 'Oh well twenty have been stopped' Rev thought to himself. He started to drive towards the ocean the ship just pulling away from the cliff. "We'll I knew this thing has over 1000 horsepower for something!" Rev said as he accelerated. He watched the raptors as he dimmed his lights so they couldn't see the cliff ahead. As Rev flew off the cliff 5 raptors jumped after him but fell in the stormy waters below.

A(also)OOC: If anyone wants any Dino Attack Avatar PM me pronto.

IC:
Rev had added an adjustment to his Fire Hammer. He held out a small device designed to bring the Fire Hammer to him, or send it back to base. It also was a portable comlink for the Fire Hammer so he can recieve a mayday anywhere. At the moment cornered by about 100 lizards he was glad he did.

OOC: Welcome to the club, Kurahk the White!  Just remember that (and I need to remind everyone this) that one of the rules is to keep the violence LOW!

The Castle Gear, sorry, nope. That would just make it a bit too unfair, since then everyone will be dreaming, thus everyone will have Elite Vehicles, and... well, you get the picture.

IC: Rex's eyes widened at the sight of Willa Witcha's fortress's inside. Potions were scattered and broken. All of Willa's portraits (of herself! LOL!) were laying on the floor. And, the further Rex walked, the louder was the low growl he was hearing...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 6 2005, 03:33 PM

IC:
The Fire Hammer pulled up as the pack jumped towards him. 'Well that was worth the time it took to install it.' Rev joked to himself. He hightailed it out of there "They'll be no carnage today my scaly friends." He yelled.

Rev found himself at his base again. He went to the roof to find no Pteradon's anywhere around here which didn't suprise him because a storm was coming, a storm that was big enough to scare even the mutant dinosaurs. Rev sat over the edge envisioning, day dreaming, or in his case a nightmare.

The pack of lizards surrounded him, when he pressed the button. Moments before the pack jumped at him the Fire Hammer should have been there but the button failed. They hurtled themselves at him and became a huge shadow and absorbed him. A mirror was there, he ran for the mirror to find himself Half-Dino, Half-Human. The mirror morphed into a crystal ball and he couldn't stop looking at it. In it he saw himself and facing rest of the Dino Attack Team in battle. "Die Dino Attack Goon's, you can't stop me from heralding an age of mutant dinosaurs." He heard himself say as he fired a huge barrage of missiles at them. Then he went for Sereve and brought his clawed hand into a strangle hold and started to kill him.
"No I won't let you kill Sereve, you Bard!" Rev screamed waking in his bed in his base.
"Won't let who kill me?" Said Sereve who he hadn't known was there.
Rev jumped backwards in his bed. "What are you doing here?"
"I came here like you said I should and I noticed you on the roof and brought you in moments before the storm started." Sereve answered.
"Thank God it was just a dream." Sereve said.
"I'm beginning to doubt him, I mean why would he let this happen?" Rev replied.

OOC: I get it but, you can only build story in dreams not actually stop mutants in their physical form.

IC: Snake hopped into the UA and hit 210 m.p.h! The lizard swerved and hit a rundown building. " Alright!" Snake thought. "A perfect target." POW! The Sonic Screamer hit the lizard. "Great! One down, a million to go." OOC: Nice to meet you all! BZPOWER RULEZ!

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 6 2005, 03:55 PM

IC: Rex listened to the growl. It didn't belong to Mutant Raptors, too low, but it was too high for a Mutant T-Rex. Rex stopped in his tracks. Mutant Raptors. And he wasn't with any nets. He was thankful once he found a fork in the path. He took the path that the growl wasn't coming from. But, he realized he had ran into something else guarding the path...

IC: Sereve helped Rev up. He said, "Had a bad dream?"
"Oh yeah." Replied Rev.
"Yeah. This storm is a bad one. Bailey's been barking at the sky all day."
"Speaking of your dog, you were looking a little nervous around him. Why is that?"
"Because, well, this is going to sound farfetched to you, but he can shoot acid."
"What?" Rev asked, very puzzled.
"He was apparently mutated in that wave that caused all this. I think he only does that when one of us is in trouble."
"Interesting."
"Tell me about it."
Just then a loud crash was heard.
"Want to go check it out?" Asked Sereve.
"You know I do." Replied Rev.
They then ran out of them room, Bailey running after them. Just then a huge lizard/human like creature standing in the conference room where everyone was supposed to meet. He was a mixture of all of the mutants. He had glowing, fierce, red eyes. He started walking toward Sereve. The creature said, "Sereve. I have been searching for some time now."
"Me? Why me?" Asked Sereve, Rev staring at this horrible creature from his nightmares.

"You see, Sereve, have something of mine. Are you familiar withe jewel if Sentarie 9?"
"Crystal? No I haven't."
"Sereve, you don't get it do you. Sentarie 9 is where these dinosaurs are coming from. We sent them down. We caused the mutation wave. I'm their king I would know." The creature then became face to face with the scared-to-death agent. He said with a lower tone, "We know you have the jewel, Sereve. You can't hide it."
"I...I swear I don't know what you're talking about." Sereve replied.
"I see. You're lieing, Sereve." Just then the creature grabbed Sereve by the throte and continued, "Lying is bad."
Rev then yelled at him, "No I won't let you kill Sereve, you Bard!"
Just then, a creature tapped the kings shoulder and said, "I think you're looking for me."
The king turned around and was ounced hard in the face by tall, human like, black and white wolf creature. The punch caused Sereve to fall to the ground. He looked up and said, "Bailey?! Is that you?"
The now human-like Bailey looked at Sereve and said, "No brother. my real name's Banchicto. This is my brother Landro. He's looking for me. I have the jewel in my DNA pattern, and the only way for him to extract it is if I'm dead. THere's no way I'm going to let that happen."
The two brothers then ran at eachother at full force. Punches were being thrown left and right. The final blow was when the two creatures were in a hand lock. Banchito breathed acid on him, sending him into a puddle on the ground.
Banchoti said, "Way too easy."
The then puddle then started talking and said, "Fools! I'm not defeated! You have just angered me! More waves of dinosaurs and radiation will hit your planet! There's no hope for you!" The puddle then evaporated.
rev then said, "This is very bad. Vey, very bad."

The Dragon was furious that its prey had escaped. Suddenly, a Mutant Raptor appeared. Rex had to change directions. When he saw a Mutant Pteradon, he turned again. Now, he had a Dragon, Mutant Raptor, and Mutant Pteradon chasing him. Rex looked desperately for his IP. Although he didn't find the IP, he found Chompy. Chompy noticed the danger, then let Rex ride his back. Then, Dino Attack Agent and T-Rex took off, looking for a safe way to avoid the Dragon, Mutant Raptor, and Mutant Pteradon.

"Fire again. if it doesn't destroy him, then retreat."said the commander.
"Easy for you to say, your in base, I'm on the sky, following a maniac."said the pilot.
"Well its going to be worse if you don't..."said the commander.
"Yes Sir!"said the pilot, trying to hide his anger.

kotua fired low power shots, but the missiles easily avoided them.

*Too bad the power is restricted to shelters and places like Dino HQ.*thought kotua.
he opened the door. he looked at the all
'26TH FLOOR' read a sign.
kotua groaned, and walked down slowly.

IC: Rex drove through the burned Dark Forest, barely dodging the burned trees along the way. The Dark Forest made way to the Royal Knights Kingdom. Once a peaceful, quiet village with a few castles, it was now a sign of death. Skeletons hung around the place, and the small rivers were dried up. Next was a barren desert, which led to Morcia. It almost seemed as if the Moorlands had stretched out and taken over the kingdom itself. A few Mutant Lizards were nearby, but Rex didn't stop to catch them. He wanted to get out of Castle Cove as quickly as possible.

He was on his way back from HQ to the city he had set up in. He had bomb's, he was gonna bring down the buildings(other than his) in that city and trap the creatures in there so he could bomb them from the air, half certain that he was gonna become an elite real soon. The wind and rain chilled him and he had to put a protective barrier around most of his car because the hail was the size of basketball's. In a matter of minutes he had the bombs set and desinged to blow everything away from the skyscraper in the middle of the city.

"You know I do." Replied Rev.
They then ran out of their room, Bailey running after them. Just then a huge lizard/human like creature standing in the conference room where everyone was supposed to meet. He was a mixture of all of the mutants. He had glowing, fierce, red eyes. He started walking toward Sereve.
The creature said, "Sereve. I have been searching for some time now."
"Me? Why me?" Asked Sereve, Rev staring at this horrible creature from his nightmares.
"You see, Sereve, have something of mine. Are you familiar with the jewel of Sentarie 9?"
"Crystal? No I haven't."
"Sereve, you don't get it do you. Sentarie 9 is where these dinosaurs are coming from. We sent them down. We caused the mutation wave. I'm their king I would know." The creature then became face to face with the scared-to-death agent. He said with a lower tone, "We know you have the jewel, Sereve. You can't hide it."
"I...I swear I don't know what you're talking about." Sereve replied.
"I see. You're lying, Sereve." Just then the creature grabbed Sereve by the throat and continued, "Lying is bad."
Rev then yelled at him, "No I won't let you kill Sereve, you Bard!"
Just then, a creature tapped the king's shoulder and said, "I think you're looking for me."
The king turned around and was punched hard in the face by tall, human-like, black and white wolf creature. The punch caused Sereve to fall to the ground. He looked up and said, "Bailey?! Is that you?"
The now human-like Bailey looked at Sereve and said, "No brother. my real name's Banchicto. This is my brother Landro. He's looking for me. I have the jewel in my DNA pattern, and the only way for him to extract it is if I'm dead. There's no way I'm going to let that happen."
The two brothers then ran at each other at full force. Punches were being thrown left and right. The final blow was when the two creatures were in a hand lock. Banchito breathed acid on him, sending him into a puddle on the ground.
Banchoti said, "Way too easy."
The then puddle then started talking and said, "Fools! I'm not defeated! You have just angered me! More waves of dinosaurs and radiation will hit your planet! There's no hope for you!" The puddle then evaporated.
rev then said, "This is very bad. Very, very bad."

OOC: Hey guys. Sorry to say, somethings come up and I'm unable to keep up with the flow of the RPG, so I'm gonna have to drop out for a bit. I'll try getting back into the game when things allow me to keep up better.

Aoi

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 07:36 AM

OOC: Okay, AoiJuni! I'm sure that things get confusing from time to time.

Welcome Gojira!

IC: Finally, Rex was out of Castle Cove. Then, he began his journey to the hideout to check on Trouble and Sapphire. "I sure hope that they - and their eggs - are okay," hoped Rex. He was still amazed at the fact that they laid eggs.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 07:46 AM

IC:...Cookies! kotua quickly tried getting them, but then he realized they weren't good to eat, as bacteria were growing on it. he threw the cookies away. he then headed back to the stairs, and continued walking down the stairs...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 07:51 AM

OOC: Blech, bacteria-flavored cookies...

IC: Rex found that the eggs were no longer there. But... hatchlings were! He noticed that the hatchlings were also mutated. "That's strange," Rex said, "both parents mutated, so are hatchlings." Trouble grinned at Rex. Rex smiled as he noticed one troublesome baby Mutant Lizard. "Hey, it's Trouble Jr.!" he laughed.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 08:02 AM

IC:kotua ran down the stairs, hoping to soon reach the bottom.

the man searching for kotua sat down. He was goign to wait for kotua to pass through here...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 08:09 AM

IC: After feeding the Mutant Dinos - and the new family of Mutant Lizards - Rex walked out to his IP. Then, he drove off to Dino Attack HQ. He also found out that Agent Gojira had joined the club.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 08:22 AM

IC:kotua ran down the stirs, now he was on the 18th floor. kotua looked down. there was still a log way down, unless...

the man was falling asleep, when he heard somebody screaming.

he looked up. nobody was there.

"oh boy"muttered the man, taking out a gun...

kotua sat on the floor. he had thrown himself down the 18th floor, and he was barely able to grasp anything to break his fall on the 10th floor...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 08:33 AM

IC: "Always good news to know that our team is expanding," Rex said. "Now, I'm going to capture a few Mutant Dinos." He drove over to Lego City. To his surprise, there was no dinos in sight.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 08:41 AM

IC:after resting for a while, kotua got up, and walked down the stairs...

after a while, kotua had reachd the 8th floor. he stopped to rest again, and after an hour, he began walking down again...

IC:

Rev heard no explosion when he triggered the bombs just cement cracking and smashing buildings. Rev had set up the bombs differently then he was going to at first, now they were rigged up to collapse and bury the Dino's in the four walls. Rubble and dust were thrown into the air and collapsing infront of the city gates. Rev was glad Sereve had left before this because Rev had just realized how idiotic he had been. He had no way out.

"Mayday, Mayday this Agent #153012-D Rev Raptor of Dino Attack Team. Trapped in dinosaur filled city. Gate purposely blocked to stop Mutant Dinosaurs here from rampaging through the island. Requesting arial pickup from the tower thats still standing ASAP. Over." And Rev hoped he'd be picked up soon.

IC:kotua soon reached the 5th floor. He heard a gun fire, and the bullet pass by him.

"D'oh!"said a voice.

"Who's there?"askd kotua.

th man dropped his gun and ran at kotua, jumped, and tried kicking him during the jump. kotua ducked his kick, and punched him in the stomach.

the man punched kotua in the face, making kotua stagger back. kotua rolled under the man, and kicked him again. kotua quickly got up while the man fell with pain, and ran outside. he ran towards Dino HQ...

IC:

It had been an hour since the mayday but now he could here it, a T-1 Typhoon.

"Rev, what are you doing here?" said a familiar voice.

"Specs its about time you got here." Rev answered.

"I see you made a base and trapped yourself in here." Specs demanded.

"I needed my own place to stay, and plan and stuff." Rev said.

"Get in the back." Said another voice.

"Viper, still grouchy as ever." Rev said.

"Listen to Viper." He heard two more voices say.

"Or you could ride the rope." They agreed.

"Digger, Shadow I know you wouldn't do that.

mischievous smiles crawl over there the four faces"Yes we would."

Rev turns pale because he loves flying but hates height. "Okay, I'll go in the back." Rev said as he jumped in and slammed the side door shut.

OOC: How much dos it take to get to be an Elite Agent round here its driving me nutso (even though its in walking distance)

OOC:You forgot IC:

IC:kotua sat in the room. h hoped his fellow agents weren't going to kill him for what he did...

the man got up.

"Hes going to pay for this!"said the man walking towards his steel Sprinter...

"What?! You let him escape?!"shouted the commander.

"he too kme by surprise!"said the man.

"Where is he now?"asked the commander.

"I don't know..."repleid the man.

"Well you better find out where he went...or else."said the commander.

"Yes Sir!"replied the man, obviously still in pain.

suprised i jumped back into the urban avenger and tried to fire the sonic screamer at the raptor it doged it and jumped on to the cars (urban avergers) roof "aw great now i got an over grown raptor on top of my own car". I turned the ignition on and tried to shake it of by going down 2 or 3 low roof tumels at 60 mph but when i stoped the car i was shocked to see it (raptor) still clinging on i hit the acleration and sped down past the hq as i passed i yeled back hey alittle help here, any one?

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 01:40 PM

OOC:I just got the catalog with the Dino attack cover

IC:a Black T-1 Typhoon noticed a Urban avenger diving at full speed.

"Fifteen bucks I can blow it up from here"said th gunner

"Might as well pay now."replied the pilot.

the gunner aimed at Gojira's UA.

Gojira drove at full speed, activating his weapons to try to get the dino off, but with no success. Suddenly he heard a sound.

"hmm?"

he turned and screamed, for a missile was headed for him!

Posted by: Gojira Jul 7 2005, 01:43 PM

ic: oh man gota think fast gota think fast, i made a sharp u turn to see if i could get past it, the misle flashed bye in a blaze of speed and sound "wow that was close i hope it isnt a heat seaker"

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 02:04 PM

IC:"See?"said the pilot, laughing.

"He moved!"replied the gunner angrily.

"This is how I do it."said the pilot, pressing a button.

Gojira noticed the dino was gone.

"at least it helped"muttered Gojira.

suddenly he heard the sound again, but louder. he looked up.

Four missiles were flying for him!

Gojira quickly shot down the four of them with the gun mounted on the UA(Urban avenger.)

"Yeah, real sweet."said the gunner.

"Shut it fool."repleid the pilot.

Posted by: Gojira Jul 7 2005, 02:08 PM

well if this works on their cheesy misilse maybe it will blow that thing out of the sky he turns and fires a shot at the copters cocpit.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 02:19 PM

IC:"hey!"said the pilot, flying towards Gorija.

the copter fires four more missiles, and begins firing back.

Gojira continues firing, but soon his gun is blown of.

"uh-oh!"says Gojira.

immediately he drives off, with the black T-1 Typhoon in pui rsuit...

Posted by: Gojira Jul 7 2005, 02:23 PM

oh great out with the rapter in with the copter, i guess i ll have to find a way to make this thing kill its self, first i might as well fry those misisles. I fire my gun in rapid sucsetion and begin driving back toward one of the tunels. the copter still in presuit fails to notice it and crashes.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 02:25 PM

OOC: The Castle Gear, just be patient. Becoming an Elite Agent takes a lot of time, for example in the AT RPG, I had to wait a LONG time before I became an Elite Agent.

Vakrohk, I'm sorry. You can't PM me, it's gotten a little too far with the PMs. You're just going to have to tell everyone in public.

IC: Rex heard Venom's message, but he couldn't hear the last part of it. "Say the last part again?" asked Rex. No reply. "VENOM?" The line was dead. "This is not good," Rex said. "Not only is the fact that I couldn't hear who was the cause of all this, but something happened to Venom!"

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 02:27 PM

OOC:Gojira, your UA had its gun blown off. how could you fire if you didn't have the gun?
IC:the pilot of T-1 Typhoon noticed Gojira driving into a tunnel.
"Lets go after it!"said the gunner.
"That thing doesn't have a gun. Sooner or later, a dino is goign to do the job for us...get it?"replied the pilot
"yeah, I do."muttered the gunner.

Posted by: Gojira Jul 7 2005, 02:30 PM

occ: oh it did oops let try this again and stick with your idea ic: as i drove in i noticed that no explosion came odd i thought might be a trap let me just keep driving.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 02:33 PM

OOC: Oh, my, Gojira, sorry to say, but you forgot TWO "IC"s. That's a warning.

IC: Rex hopped into the IC. He had to rescue Venom and find out who was the cause of all these Mutant Dinos before it was too late. But, where was Venom? Rex groaned.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 02:35 PM

IC:the gunner noticed pteradon(sp?) flying around.
"dumb bird."muttered the gunner, firing a net at it.
"but dumb birds are good at experiments..."siad the gunner.
"Its my copter so I claim it!"said the pilot.
"I caught it!"said the gunner.

Gojira kept driving,when suddenly...
ROAR!
Gojira had driven into a mutant T-rex's foot, and the T-rex doesn't like when somebody squashes his foot...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 02:42 PM

IC: Well, one thing was for sure - Venom was NOT in Lego City. So, Rex drove out of there. He barely was one mile out of Lego City when a Mutant T-Rex appeared. "Not good at all," mumbled Rex...

Posted by: Gojira Jul 7 2005, 02:42 PM

ooc: oh sory bout that, also im going to be gone for a while after this ic : aw no a rex! i hit the revers in the urban avenger and make another u turn unfortunately for me the tire ran over its foot again geting it even mader and with no defence or place to hide i drove toward the other end of the tunel...

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 02:46 PM

IC:the guards of Dino HQ sent a message to all the agents, telling them they(the guards) had captured kotua...

the bickering Gunner and pilot landed the T-1 typhoon at their HQ.
"I have better aiming than you!"said the gunner.
"quiet."said the commander, who went out to meet them
"You wish you did!"replied the pilot
"I said be quiet you two"sai the commander, raising his voice
"At least I caught this!"said the gunner
"Silence!!"shouted the commander.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 7 2005, 02:48 PM

IC: Rex fired the cannon. It hit a wrecked building, collapsing it, and distracting the Mutant T-Rex. Rex drove out of the way. Then, he began looking for Venom.

Posted by: Sand Hawk 1 Jul 7 2005, 03:01 PM

IC: Banchito smelled the air.
"The next wave is coming." He said. "It's going to be the strongest yet."
"Well what can we do?" Asked Sereve.
"We can flee until we find a place to stay. Rev will stay here with specs and my brother and I will find a base and plan. Our best bet is antarctica."
"Good luck you two." Said Rev.
"Same to you." Said Sereve. Then the two brothers left. Sereve in his UA and Banchito on land.
Sereve decided to try to converse as well as possible, so he asked him, "So, I guess you didn't like it when I baby-talked you when I was a kid, huh?"
Banchito replied, "I didn't mind. You just did it a little too much."
"I figured I was taking it too far somewhere along the line. So, how did you survive all that?"
"Landro and my people live for a very long time. We're also virtually indestructible from forces outside creatures or weapons outside out planet. Oh look! We're at the antarctic boarder already."
Sereve was surprised for two reasons:
1. How fast they got there.
2. That they had to cross the ocean to get there!
Sereve look over his UA, and realized that he was booking it so fast that he was actually driving on water. Banchito was going as fast as the UA, so you can imagine how he would look running on water.
Once they reached the boarder of the deserted continent, Sereve asked, "I don't see hope we can build a base, outside of an igloo."
Banchito replied, "Watch this." He then started spitting acid until there was a steep, wide hole in the ground. He hopped in, and started making sturdy passageways. 20 minutes, or so, later Banchito looked up through the entry way hole he made, looked at Sereve and said, "Come on in!"
Sereve jumped in and started to look around. This place have been at least a have an acre long! Banchito led him into the main room, which was gigantic. They then sat down and started planning a way to destroy the endless upcoming army of dinosaurs.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 03:02 PM

IC:another black T-1 Typhoon flew towards dino HQ. the guards readied their weapons, but the gas granades that the copter threw put them to sleep before they could fire back.
the copter landed, and four men armed went in. they searched everywhere, until they found a locked room.
they shot down the door, and grabbed kotua, who had his hands tied behind his back.

"hello there"said kotua.
"your coming with us."said the leader. the men then walked back to the copter...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 7 2005, 03:24 PM

IC:
Rev was finally set down not far from the HQ. 'I'm such an cool dude those Dinosaurs will be able to dig out soon.' Rev thought. He knew there was a lack of T-1 Pilots to destroy them but he knew these would count his score. Rev trhen parked infront of the rubble so when they escape they'll be gone. Rev found himself wondering what if Landro isn't the main source, maybe he and Banchito were mutated including their memories. Rev just wasn't sure anymore if he ever was.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 03:40 PM

IC:Rev notced the sleeping guards, and the black T-1 Typhoon.
"Something's not right here..."said Rev.
suddenly men in black suits, walked towards the helicopter, taking along kotua.
"what in the world?"said Rev.

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 7 2005, 04:03 PM

IC:
"What in the world?" Rev said.
"Its too complex for you to understand." Said one of the Guards.
"Thats why I decided to hurt you until you tell me." Rev said punching and knocking one of them down.
The other one lunged at Rev and he flipped over them. 'Finally having Jetch Raptor as a father ha an advantage.' Rev thought, thinking of his star father. Rev then pressed the button. Rev stopped most of the guys punches. After a long battle he saw the Fire Hammer coming. He flipped over the guy again, landed in the Fire Hammer and knocked the guy over his hood then stopped and watched him go flying into a wall.
"Jeez Kotua" Rev said putting him in the Fire Hammer again. "Lose some weight... and these guys."

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 7 2005, 04:09 PM

"No idea who they are..."replied kotua.
"okay."said Rev.
suddenly a missile whizzed past the fire hammer.
Rev looked back. a black fire hammer was firing at them.
"oh boy."he muttered, driving in reverse, hitting the black fire hammer. the n Rev drove off, with the black fire hammer, and two black T-1 Typhoons following them...

Posted by: King Jayko of Morcia Jul 7 2005, 04:50 PM

IC:
"Kotua you don't know who, but can you tell me why there after you?"
"Just trust me here escape." Kotua said.
"Ya know, I can escape from anything on the ground but T-1 Typhoons are next impossible to shake off." Rev said.
Rev was near the blocked off city when he shot 1 T-1 down and it fell over and it worked like a ramp and Rev pulled a Dukes of Hazzard jump and drove into the tower. Rev was on top in less than a minute and shot the other one down making a bridge. They went back over it and blew both down.

(Back at HQ)
"Kotua". Rev said.
"Yah?" Kotua responded.
"Avoid them from now on." Rev said.
"Trust me I try." Kotua joked.

Posted by: Gojira Jul 7 2005, 07:37 PM

ic: as i aproached the end of the tumel i noticed that the helicopter had left, I muttered under my breath "today just isn't my lucky day, first i get atacked by a raptor then a t1 typhoon now a rex just great" the rex roared behind him and started to pick up speed. I hit the aceleration and speed bye countless roads i could have driven away on too late did i notice that the side streat lead to a very narow aley way. "aw great im gona be trapped" the rex roared behind me and i made up my mind it would be better that way then being eaten. As the urban avenger came to a loud crash at the back of the aly another louder crash came as the mutant rex tried to squeeze its way inside. this gave me a while to think. mostly it brought along the folowing thoughts: why are all of the mutants carnivores, what was causing the rapid growth and mutations of the mutants for example the raptors grew almost 4x their normal size.

oc: its true adult velociraptors only grew to about the size of a poodle

ooc: they grow bigger than a poodle, maybe about three feet.

IC: "I can't leave you guys alone for a second, can I?"
joked Hyrode as he saw the black wreckage. Suddenly, he got serious. "what is going on here?"
Kotua just shrugged. Hyrode replied, "then let's find out."

Posted by: Gojira Jul 8 2005, 12:11 AM

ooc: realy i'll have to check on it before my next post.

ic: i sit up with a start "oh man what happened i must have fallen asleep". i look back to see if the rex was gone. It was i put the urban avenger in reverse andback out of the ally. "now just got to make some repairs". some was an under statement the gun had been blown clean off and the back right tire had been nocked off not to mention the front end was in a disconfiguered positon causing the progres of the car's movement to slowdown.as i searched for someplace to get repairs i found an abandoned amuntion shop. all that was inside was a rifel and a bunch of tranqualizer darts. "this ought to do well for now" i muttered and draged the weapons into the back seat. i drove around some more and found an automobile repair shop from the first glance it seamed empty and i began the repairs. when i had compleated as much worck as posible (finding a new axle and refitng it to the urban avenger discarding the brocken axl and beat out some of the damage on the front end with a hammer. sudenly a hiss came from behind me and a mutant lizard crawled out from a pile of old boxes "from what i'v seen today your small fry" i grab a couple of tranq (tranqualizer) darts and load them into the rifels barel i aim and fire just as it jumps foward, the lizard fliped backward and lands on the ground.

OOC: I've missed a few replies here...

IC: Isaac moved forward, cautiously, he knew the Raptor had to be here somewhere. He had his blade raised, ready to block anything. He peeked around a corner. Nothing, he entered the ruins of a building, there were maybe a couple of walls standing. The pitch black night made it difficult to see anything. He noticed a moving tail. He slowly stepped forward, he raised his blade ready to strike. But then he saw somethign he didn't expect to see. A nest, the Raptor he had been chasing was a mother and she had brought some food for her young ones. He lowered his weapon and backed off. If he were to be noticed the mother wouldn't be so happy. "I just hope the father won't be here soon." And just as that thought flew through his mind he felt something in his neck. Breathing...

IC: Kai checked about. Not a dinosaur was to be seen. Soon, he heard more thumpings, only twice as frequent. It didn't look good. Looking out, there wasn't one, but two Mutant T-Rexes towering over him! Kai sent a message:

Help requested -- I'm being targeted by two Mutant T-Rexes! Coordinates are 596-305, and get an IP here if possible.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 8 2005, 08:37 AM

IC:the commander looked through the window.
"Your team failed me."he said.
"Maybe they anticipated the attack.."said the team leader.
"Doesn't matter. I traveled south of Lego city, into a military factory. there newest vehicle will do the job better than you will ever be able to."said the Commander.
"no it won't, because this time, I'm going with the next team."said the team leader.
"if you don't succeed 'next time', don't bother showing up here. not if you want to live."said the Commander.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 8 2005, 09:08 AM

IC: Rex received Kai's message. "Just great," he muttered. He had to find Venom but also had to rescue Kai. Which first? "Venom's line probably only went dead," Rex guessed, "so that means I should rescue Kai first. Mutant T-Rexes, eh? This is gonna be good!" Then, he began looking for Kai.

OOC: Sorry, Kotua. Are we cool?  IC: Then suddenly, KER-SLAM!!! Specs and his Fire Hammer blasted thru a wall. "Need some help, dude?" I said, "Yup." "Then let's take them down!!!!!!" Specs cried. BAM! BAM! BAM! BAM! BAM! " Wicked." Snake said.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 8 2005, 02:00 PM

OOC:yep...
IC:The commander walked down the HQ.
*Perhaps its time to take real action*thought the commander.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 8 2005, 02:23 PM

IC: Rex found Kai pursued by two mamoth Mutant T-Rexes. Rex smiled, knowing what to do. He fired the IP's cannon to distract them, then fired a net at them. To Rex's surprise, the nets merely ripped at the strength of the Mutant T-Rexes. "Not good at all..." mumbled Rex.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 8 2005, 02:33 PM

IC:"Theres been a change of orders."said the commander to the IPs.
"Yes Sir!"replied the drivers of both units...

Rex saw in his radar that another IP was apporaching...

the black IP arrived at Dino HQ, and fired. a IP came out and strted firing at the black vehicle.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 8 2005, 02:55 PM

IC: Rex hoped that the IP was going to help them. Him and Kai couldn't outrun the Mutant T-Rexes for long. And, the Mutant T-Rexes were gaining. But, Rex felt that the IP was not going to help...

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 8 2005, 05:56 PM

IC:The black IP fired multiple shots at the T-Rexes, bringing thm down. then it fired a net at Kai and Rex. a man dressed in black, with a black helmet walked towards them.
"So, your part of Dino team.."he said.
"yeah, so?"said Kai.
"We don't like Dino Team..."said the man.
other men in black jumped from the IP, and dragged both Dino agents into the IP. then they drove towards the HQ...

IC:

A warm breath krept across Rev's neck. A raptor was reflected on the glass of his dashboard. Rev backed up quickly and the thing tumbled perfectly over and found a shot hitting the Raptor in the rear knocking it down the mountain. 'Well it could have been worse Kotua could have been captured again.' Rev thought.

OOC:

I might not be able to post unless such would affect my chances of being elite.

ooC: What?

IC: Hyrode was dragged into the holding area of one of the IPs.

"hey, what's going on-," he said, interrupted by a swift blow to the neck.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 9 2005, 12:44 PM

OOC: The Castle Gear, being an Elite Agent takes a lot of time. Don't get over-anxious about being an Elite Agent quickly.

IC: Rex wasn't happy about being trapped. Especially in something like a net. Then, he began looking for a way to get out of the net - and to help the others. He didn't find a single weak spot. That didn't improve his mood.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 9 2005, 06:45 PM

IC:"So, agent-uh..."asked the man in black.

"Rex."replied Rex.

"Agent Rex, I want you to call off all your team members...or else..."said the man.

"Why?"asked Rex.

Posted by: KanohiTakua Jul 9 2005, 11:14 PM

IC: "Now, now... I won't want to reveal my secrets now, would I?"

"So what do you mean by 'Or else'?" said Kai.

"Or else you will face something worse than anything you've seen in your nightmares."

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 10 2005, 09:54 AM

IC: "Worse than my worst nightmare, eh?" repeated Rex, who was twiddling with a small part of the net. "Well, that really surprises me. Now, you seem not to like our team. Do you even care for this planet, or do you - " RIIIIIP!!!! "What the-?" Rex looked at the part of the net he was twiddling with. It was ripped.

"Who gave you the defected net?!" the man wearing black said angrily.

"It's only a small rip."

"But you're probably going to open it larger and escape and help your friends, aren't you?"

"There's no way I could escape out of that tiny hole!" Rex protested. He knew that he really DID want to escape and help his friends, but if he revealed that, they would be doomed. Rex began to twiddle with another part of the net, hoping to enlarge the hole.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 10 2005, 10:16 AM

IC:"I care for the planet. However, In order to get rid of these mutant disasters, we need to kill them, not trap them...they don't deserve to live. and we need to talk with agent kotua..."said the man.

"Your wrong. those Dinos aren't any more evilier than you, for wanting to kill them...so No, I'm not helping you."replied Rex.

"We'll were doing it the hard way then?"said the man.

he signaled to his squad, and they put them on the vehicles, with Rex guarded. they drove off, towards castle cove.

"You have one last chance to help us, Agent Rex."said the man.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 10 2005, 10:27 AM

IC: Rex smiled as he remembered something - Chompy was still in Castle Cove. Hopefully, the Dragon and Mutant Pteradon were gone, but Chompy was still here. And watching. And already thinking up a plan. Over the years, Chompy had learned to throw his voice. And Chompy knew that was going to help. He growled, but threw his growl to a bush. His plan worked - already, a part of the squad had left their place and rushed over to the bush, preparing to kill whatever was in there. Then Chompy threw his growl again - this time, to a tree. The part of the squad rushed from the empty bush to the empty tree. This is going to be entertaining, Rex thought as he watched the confused part of the squad run from one empty area to another.

OOC: "Throwing your voice" is a very hard thing to do (even I can't do it!). It's when you trick others into thinking that your voice is in one place where it's not.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 10 2005, 10:32 AM

IC:The squad backed off, and the black IP destroyed both the tree, and the bush. the IP took a turn, and they reached a cliff.

"Your not thinking..of throwing us down the cliff, are you?"asked Kai.

"Easy way to get rid of those that don't cooperate."said the man.

two other men drogged both Dino agents to the cliff.

"any last words?"said the man.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 10 2005, 02:33 PM

IC: "Yes, in fact I have a last word," Rex smiled, glancing at his newly-made hole that was large enough. "I'm free!" Then, he darted out of the hole, and grabbed Kai and Hyrode. Then, he took off, pursued by the squad and the man. But, Rex had a feeling that he knew a good place to hide and free Kai and Hyrode. He ran into a dark cave, then blocked the entrance. "Don't worry, I'll have you out of those nets in no time," Rex said.

"I can do it myself," Kai said, and he began tugging at the net's material. Nothing happened. Kai tried again. Still nothing.

"Let me try it," Rex said. To both of their surprises, the material merely snapped when Rex touched it.

"Okay, why is it that you're so strong?" asked Kai.

"Don't know, I never knew about this," answered Rex. Already, there was a hole big enough for Kai to crawl through, which he did. Then, Rex freed Hyrode. "I guess that the only thing I'm doing is finding a weak spot," guessed Rex, "because I'm certainly not very strong."

OOC: The REAL reason why Rex could break the nets while Kai and Hyrode couldn't will be revealed many pages from now, around page 25 or 27.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 11 2005, 07:38 AM

OOC:So its not something natural then...right PeaSam?
IC:"great...just great."muttered the man.

kotua walked back to Dino HQ, and began looking for materials for his Robo-Blade. he reached for his pocket, and took out a round device.
"uh-oh."said kotua, after realizing what it was.
OOC:No, the device kotua has isn't a bomb or anything like that...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 11 2005, 11:50 AM

OOC: Just wait and see...

IC: Rex, Kai, and Hyrode waited for the squad to pass. Thankfully, it did, not aware that they were hiding in the blocked cave. "Uh, Rex?" asked Kai.
"What?" asked Rex.
"There's something else in this cave..." Kai said. A red glow came from the other side of the cave. Fire. The fire of one of Castle Cove's Dragons.
"RUN!" yelled Hyrode, and the trio unblocked the cave and darted away, thankful that the squad wasn't there anymore.

IC:kotua pressed a button. the little screen it had turned on. he pressed another button.

Agent crunch was walking on the antartica, making sure no Dinos had arrived, when suddenly, the ground trembled.
"Earthquake!"shouted Crunch.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 11 2005, 12:17 PM

OOC:

IC: "We're going to have to be careful here," Hyrode said. "We are without our vehicles or weapons."
"Or nets," mumbled Rex, looking at two Mutant Raptors in the distance. "So, how are we going to find a way out of here - on foot - before the squad - and that strange man catches up with us?"
"Who said we're going on foot?" asked Kai, pointing to the form of a dinosaur running towards them. Chompy.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 11 2005, 12:28 PM

IC:the earth split open as crunch stumbled towards base.
crunch turned around, and he almost gasped in surprise. A giant craft was slowly rising from the snow. as soon as the craft was high on the air, it started moving to away.

"I hope nobody lives on top of the hiding spot."said kotua.
he looked around. He couldn't tell anybody from the HQ about the craft. Specially since it hap a potent weapon.
"THis is probably what the man in the suit wanted from me."said kotua to himself.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 11 2005, 12:44 PM

IC: It was luck that Chompy was big enough to carry all three of the Dino Attack Agents on his back. Kai in the front; Hyrode in the middle; Rex in the back. The Dinosaur ran across the terrain. Rex remembered that Chompy could even outrun an IP when at full speed. Since they were in a different area and had a different destination, their path was different from the last time Rex was in Castle Cove. They started in the Dragon Mater's Territory (which explained the Dragon), then entered the Wolf Pack Village, then the Black Knight's Land, and the Crusander's Castle. Out of Castle Cove, Chompy led the Agents to Lego City, where all their vehicles still were. Right where they left them when they were captured.

IC:soon the craft was flying faster over the ocean.

its Robot crew kept the craft flying as smooth as possible. some of the robots repaired and charged the weaponry, and the main weapon, located at the front of the ship.

kotua slipped the round control back into his pocket, and took out what he was looking for: a knife. he opened a box, and begn using it to draw the Robo-Blade's blueprints...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 11 2005, 01:15 PM

IC: Rex was so tired, he barely could drive back to Dino Attack HQ. When he got to his bed, he plopped down immediately. But to his surprise, he couldn't sleep. He couldn't think of anything more unpleasant than being very tired but unable to sleep. He groaned, waiting for him to drift off to sleep. He didn't.

The next morning, Rex was more tired than ever...

"Hey Rex, is there spare parts? I'm going to Rebuild my Robo-Blade"said kotua.

"...sure...I think..."muttered Rex.

"You okay?"asked kotua.

"...Just...tired."replied Rex.

"oh."said kotua.

IC: "Last night... I was... very tired," explained Rex, "but... unfortunately... I couldn't... sleep..."
"Wow, that's bad," agreed Kotua. "How bout some coffee?"
"I... guess..." answered Rex.

OOC: I have a comedy, and it took me MONTHS to reach page 7. Now, this RPG took me only a few DAYS to reach page 9!

OOC:

Specs noticed it had a symbol, which was a yellow circle, with a yellow lightning bolt...

"No," Rex answered softly. He took another sip of his coffee, then continued. "I actually have no idea what my past is. The oldest memory of mine was waking up on a bed, wanting to join the Dino Attack Team. I don't remember anything before that. Probably got brain-washed or something."

He didn't need to finish the sentence...

"Uh, yeah," Kotua said.

"Yes..."said the commander, just as surprised...

"Actually, I, well, yes in my room," answered Rex. He began to walk away, but then he looked back at Kotua. His expression was dark. "The other day... why were you trying to hurt Agent Rev while you were in the Robo-Blade?"

A blast flew from one of the laser turrets, wiping out the Jet before its missile could fly out.

"Hey! Over here!", yelled Snake. "Wh's up?" said Digger as he came out of the helicopter. "Well, I need a transport to Adventures' Island." "You see it right behind me!", Said Digger. GRRRR..... " D-D-Digger, l-l-l-look be-h-h-hind y-y-you.", stammered Snake. Digger looked behind him, and stared into the eyes of a Mutant T-Rex.

IC:The Rest of the Jets just fired like crazy, worrying more of avoiding the blasts.

"You dummies! Just shot one spot, until the shield is weakened."said the commander.
the spacecraft opened its missile bay, and missiles flew towards th Jets. one started firing at the missiles, but the missiles simply flew out of the way...

Posted by: KanohiTakua Jul 12 2005, 06:40 AM

IC: Kai jumped back in his UA and drove off. He headed towards the helicopter pad which was once the Arctic Jump point. The helicopter stood there, unscathed. The Dinos hadn't found it yet. He jumped in and took off -- south. Back to the AT base.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 11:52 AM

IC: Rex nodded, then walked away. But, he gave Kotua a suspicious look, suspecting that not all told was true. Being brainwashed - which Rex probably was - was one thing, but not telling the truth was another. "Maybe I'm making a mountain out of a molehill," Rex thought. "Maybe Kotua really was telling the truth..."

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 12 2005, 12:00 PM

IC:The Spacecraft fired like crazy at the Jets, wanting them destroyed. most Jets flew out of the way of a blast only to be on the way of another. Soon there were only three jets. one of the pilots flew itno the city, and avoided most blasts. another quickly fired missiels at an seemign Weak Spot. the craft opened fire again, taking down the third Jet, Which was just randomly flying around. it then aimed at the two surviving craft. "Let's get out of here!"said the pilto of the Jet flyign on the city.
"I Agr-"said the other pilot, before ten blasts hit the Jet.
the remaining craft flewfast, while the craft fired all it had at it. blasts hit buildings around the Jet, causing multiple fires...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 01:53 PM

IC: Rex still couldn't shake the feeling that Kotua was lying. He might've been hypnotized or brainwashed, but who would've done that? The man wearing black, probably. But then why didn't the man just hypnotize Rex, Kai, and Hyrode? It HAD to be a lie, without many other confusing questions falling into place.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 12 2005, 02:01 PM

IC:kotua watched Rex leave.
*I've got to get rid of him soon. He's asking too many questions.*thought kotua.

Forty missiles flew around the Last Jet. it fired back, destroyign some of the missiles, but the rest hit the jet...

"Sir, the whole squadron has been wiped out."said a soldier.
"WHAT?!"shouted the commander.

the craft re-charged its turrets.

kotua slowly took otu the device, and selected a target. he quickyl put it back in his pocket.

two turrets aimed at the new Target:Agent Rex...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 02:07 PM

OOO:  Has Kotua turned evil or something?!?

IC: Rex himself had lied to Kotua. He said he'd be in his room, but he was suspicious of Kotua, so he actually went to his IP. Rex turned around to see the two turrets flying towards him. He quickly hopped into the IP and drove around Lego City, trying to dodge the turrents. "One sharp turn, please," muttered Rex under his breath, "please, please, a sharp turn!" He had luck. The road ahead of him turned sharply, and Rex made the turn. The turrents didn't have the time to turn. BAM! They hit into a building.

OOO:When I said Turrets, I meant Beam Cannons on the craft...which is on the sky...and aobut kotua...well...who knows...
IC:Rex drove around Lego City, with the craft firing him.
"This is crazy.."muttered Rex.
a Dinosaur tired gettign on the IP, but a blast vaporized him.
the craft seemed to only care to destroy him...

"He can't outrun it forever..."muttered kotua.
"Hey kotua, we should be ready incase it turns towards us..."said Specs.
"Don't worry...It only hunts down Evil...Like Rex..."said kotua
"what?"said Specs.
"Don'tyt you find it sstrange he wants to 'help' these dinos...were suppose to stop an attack, not be nurses to dinos..."said kotua.
"You okay?"asked Specs.
"yes..."said kotua.

IC:"GET IN THE COPTER, NOW!!!!!!!!!!!!!!", screamed Shadow. The pair ran into the copter and flew away. When they arrived at AI, a pack of mutant raptors were running into the Sphinx area. "Land by the Sphinx.", said Snake. When they landed, Snake grabbed a Sonic Screamer. He got out and looked inside the Sphinx. A pair of glowing eyes stared right back at him..... OOC: You know what I'm thinking?

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 04:05 PM

IC: Rex grumbled as the craft sped behind him. "That Kotua..." he muttered. "I should've known all along! He's planning to betray Dino Attack Team by destroying the agents, and he's starting out with the Elite ones! No, that's not right, his first target was Rev, who isn't an Elite Agent YET, but either way Kotua is a traitor! Once I get my hands on him..." It was a wonder that he kept his focus on where he was going, since he was driving, aiming his IP Cannon, and ranting about Kotua all at the same time.

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 12 2005, 04:16 PM

IC:"Rex helps the dinos because there beings too.."said Specs leaving.
"If your siding with traitors"said kotua.
Specs turned around.
"What?"he said.

kotua shot him with a tranquilizer dart.
"agents that are quiet are good agents."said kotua.
he draggd Specs into a closet, and put him there. he then walked towards the garage, ready to make the Robo-Blade Mk II...

Rex noticed Robo-Bldes were deployed from the craft.

the man in black walked towards the commander.
"Sir, test one seems to be successful."said the man.
"Too late! I lost a squadron of Jets!"said the commander.
"It would raise suspicion..."said the man...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 04:24 PM

IC: Rex still continued his ranting. "Kotua's next target is going to be Shadow, Specs, Viper, and Digger!" he ranted, not aware that Kotua had already caught Specs. "Man, am I gonna KILL that Agent when I see him! Cut him up into little pieces and feed him to the sharks!" He paused to think a bit. "Okay, maybe not that violent, but when I learn to tame a Mutant T-Rex, Kotua's going to wish that he'd never been born!" He blasted the Robo-Blades using the IP Cannon. "Right now, I think I'd rather be chased by a Dragon, Mutant Raptor, and Mutant Lizard."

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 12 2005, 04:30 PM

IC:The Robo-Blades blocked the blasts with Beam Shields.
they fired back, nearly destroyign the IP.

kotua grabbed a Walkie Talkie..
"This is goign to be fun..."he said.

"Hello, Agent.."said a voice.
Rex was surprised. he noticed it was the Walkie Talkie.
"Whats your problem!"said Rex.
"I ask the questions...agent...and you better answer, or else.!"said kotua.
"Or else what?"asked Rex.
"So, agent, why do you help dinos? Who's paying you? Ogel? Sam Sinister? Dr.Voltage?"said kotua.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 04:46 PM

IC: "Yeah, AS IF I would be working for a villain!" Rex snarled. "I help the Dinosaurs because I believe it is better not to use violence!" But, he got out of control... "But it seems SOMEONE isn't getting that through their thick head! So, you want me to KILL instead of TAME? Is that what you want? Well, then I'm going to kill YOU!"
"Aha!" Kotua said. "Proof you're working for a villain!"
"Wait a minute, you're working with the man in black, aren't you?" Rex yelled.
"Why should you care?" Kotua asked casually. "You're the villain, not me."
Rex lost his temper. "You know what? SHUT UP! SHUT UP YOU TRAITOR! YOU'RE NOT KOTUA, AREN'T YOU? YOU'RE A DRONE! SO STOP TERRORIZING US DRONE! HOW DO YOU LIKE IT NOW THAT YOU'RE BEING CALLED A DRONE? HUH? HUH?"

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 12 2005, 04:51 PM

IC:"Eat Beam, traitor."said kotua.
"DRONE!DRONE!"said Rex.
Suddenly he heard a whirring sound over him.
Rex looked up, and gasped. the front section of the craft had opened, revealing a giant speaker looking thing. energy seemed to be forming, as a yellow ball was growing.
"and Tell your boss he needs to give up..."said kotua.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 04:57 PM

IC: Rex was bewildered. Kotua was betraying him, the Dino Attack Team - and worse of all, the world. But, Rex had an idea. "Oh, no!" he began shouting into the Walkie-Talkie. "Mutant T-Rex attacking my IP! Oh, geez! AAAHHHHH!!!!" Then, he threw the Walkie-Talkie at the ground in front of him, and ran it over with his IP. CRUNCH! Not exactly the kind of crunch he wanted, but close enough. He would think that Kotua would think that a Mutant T-Rex had devoured him. But now, he had to escape the slowly-forming energy.

"Heh, got what he deserved," Kotua smiled. "Devoured by the very creature that he wanted to tame! Ha!" Then, he frowned. "But I never found out who Rex was working for..."

Posted by: Kotua in pace Jul 12 2005, 05:05 PM

IC:"Wait a minute...T-Rexes Roar..."said kotua.
He quickly put more power into the Beam cannon.

Rex continued driving, and avoiding the robo-Blades, which had senyt missiles.

kotua felt odd.
he started getting a crave for pies. he walked towards a fridge in the HQ cafeteria, and grabed a pie. he sat down and began eating it.

"Yea, real sweet."said the man.
"We can try again later."said the commander.
"No, next time, I want control of agent Rex...he is one of the leaders. Get contact, and stop kotua from killing Rex!"said the man.
"Yes..."muttered the commander...

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 05:12 PM

IC: Rex sure hoped that Kotua had fallen for his plan, because what he needed was a break from these Robo-Blades. But, while Rex was slowly tiring, the Robo-Blade kept persistant. Suddenly, out of nowhere, another Airship came down and grabbed Rex's IP, pulling it up and away. "Robo-Blades?" said a voice coming from the cockpit. "Man, I hate it when Kotua goes crazy and attacks the innocent..." Though Rex couldn't see the pilot, he knew he was looking at him. "Come on, hop inside this airship," the pilot said. "It's a lot safer than those Robo-Blades."
Rex climbed inside. He looked at the pilot, who was still unable to be seen behind his tall chair. "Who are you?" asked Rex. After pressing a button, the pilot got up and looked at Rex. Rex gasped. The pilot was a Purple-Headed Brickster Bot.

"Don'y you remember?"asked a voice.
kotua turned around, to face the end of Spec's blaster.

Shadow, Digger, and Viper were there too.
"Woah, whats goign on?"asked kotua.
"You stufed me in a clsoet, thats what?"said Specs.

Posted by: PeabodySam Jul 12 2005, 05:24 PM

IC: "You're a Brickster Bot!" Rex gasped.
"So?" asked the Brickster Bot. "Haven't you heard not all Brickster Bots are bad? That not all destinied to be villains become villains? That there is one Brickster Bot by the name of PBB?"
"PBB?" repeated Rex.
"Oh, yes, knew him well," the Brickster Bot answered. "He was one Brickster Bot that was built by Frozeen himself. PBB also was the most loyal to Frozeen, though in his early days, he was... annoying. I heard that he had both the powers to shoot fire and blasts of energy, which can be combined to make energy-fire. Those two powers helped him and Frozeen tons of times."

"kotua sure has interesting tools."muttered Rex.
"Unfortunately."said the BB.

kotua looked at the four agents.

"You're staring at him, kid," the Brickster Bot answered.
Rex's jaw dropped. "YOU'RE PBB?" he asked.
"Yep," PBB answered. "I knew AT pretty well. Kotua, well he was a good guy for most of his years. But, starting last year... Frozeen, Chompy, and I got suspicious of how Kotua was acting. He is great at technology, but... sometimes that is bad..."

"What is that?" Rex asked.
"Beepy Bop, be beep beppity," said the robot.
"He means 'Little Bot, at your service,'" PBB translated. "He always speaks like that." Chompy growled. "And even Chompy says that his BEEPs get annoying."
"He looks like a can with limbs if you ask me," Rex said.
Little Bot frowned while Chompy made a satisfied grunt. "Beep bop!" it said.
PBB laughed. "Little Bot just told you to shut up!"
